RECENT TECHNOLOGY RECIPIENTS

Since our last newsletter, we reviewed applicants and awarded pre-loaded tablets, laser engraved with the iWarriors logo and the recipients' name, to twenty-six individuals. Here are a few of their stories:

Antonio C., Texas

While deployed, Antonio was in constant fire fights, along with IED and RPG attacks. One day, his unit was hit and they lost over 11 people. Antonio and another soldier had to fight their way back to base where they were hit with several IED's and RPG's.

Anita M., North Carolina

Anita developed generalized anxiety and PTSD during her deployment due to continuous exposure to bombings, sirens, and constant quick reactionary force missions. She suffers from insomnia, angry outbursts, hyper-startle reflex, nightmares, and night terrors.

Yolanda J., Georgia

While serving as a flight medic in Iraq, Yolanda sustained a slipped disc from carrying patients and getting hit in the head of with bunt of a rifle. She suffers from severe to debilitating migraines and has been diagnosed with occipital neuralgia.

TEAMING UP WITH THE MOLD MAKING COMMUNITY

At the recent convention of the American Mold Building Association, an iWarriors video was played during their annual awards dinner. If you weren't able to make it to the Grand Rapids event, please check this update which includes hearing the stories of recipients, along with mold industry peers who have helped out.

HEAR FROM A FEW OF THE 1000+ VETS WHO HAVE BEEN HELPED

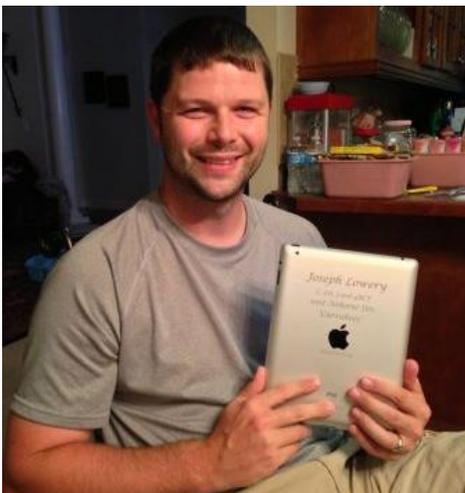

"Thank you iWarriors and everyone involved with your organization. I received a package and was stunned when I saw that there was the most thoughtful gift, I have ever received from people I have never met. I really thought it was too good to be true. My family and I are so happy that there are people out there that still care about the struggles of our wounded warriors in these times when we feel forgotten. Thank everyone again who is involved in this amazing program. You are very much in my thoughts."

-Sgt. Christopher R.

"Thank you for your gift to my son Cpl. Austin Wells. Words cannot describe the excitement he exuded sharing your gift with us. His hands shook as he showed us the inscription. It's good to see him happy. YOU did that. We are eternally grateful. Thank you for YOUR time and service to our wounded warriors. God Bless."

-Cpl. Austin W.

"I got the iPad!!! It is awesome!!!!!! Thank you, Thank you, Thank you!!! I have used it so much!! Lot of great apps for memory and cognitive issues plus some great yoga apps for PTSD!! You guys are the best!! Christmas was early this year!!

-Zach J.
